For Immediate Release: January 4, 2017 — The Fringe Festival has an addictive quality. It's a time where patrons gorge on theatre—and a time for artists to meet and riff off each others' work. And just like the patrons, the artists can't wait for the Fringe either—hence the upcoming Fringe Cabaret!

Featuring more than 15 artists, including Fringe Festival alumni Tara Travis (Til Death: the Six Wives of Henry VIII), Jayson McDonald (Giant Invisible Robot), Andrew Bailey (Me, the Queen, and a Coconut), Jeff Leard (The Show Must Go On), and Mark Hughes (Tragedy + Time Served = Comedy), and hosted by Sydney Hayduk (Village Ax) with musical guest Tristan Helgason, the Cabaret takes on the end of the world—it's bound to be an apocalyptic good time!

Pull up your boot straps and dust off your radiation suits. Come on down for leg shaking dance moves, eye popping spectacles, and gut busting shenanigans in an evening of comedy, storytelling, magic, circus, burlesque, and more!

The full lineup of artists includes:

Fraz Wiest

The first 20 people through the door will get a FREE picture of David Suzuki looking disappointed.
